(The Sergeant-at-Arms steps forward and presents the emblem to the Prelate using both hands. He stands facing the Prelate until the Prelate has invested himself with his emblem. The Prelate remains standing.)

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: This is the station of Aid.

JUNIOR GOVERNOR: We are bound together in a common brotherhood and we work for the common good – "One for All and All for One."

(The Sergeant-at-Arms steps forward and presents the emblem to the Junior Governor using both hands. He stands facing the Junior Governor until the Junior Governor has invested himself with his emblem. The Junior Governor remains standing.)

(The Sergeant-at-Arms moves to the Past Governor's station. The Past Governor rises. The Sergeant-at-Arms picks up the Past Governor's emblem with both hands, takes a small step back and holds the emblem vertically.)

PRELATE: Almighty God, Creator of the universe and Father of all mankind, we give You thanks for our fraternal brotherhood and the great precepts it embodies. Keep us diligent and mindful of our commitments to You, our children, our senior members, our families and our communities. Give us a spirit of peace, harmony and progress as we carry out these precepts in our Lodge and in our lives. Remind us each day that the greatest good we can do is to serve You through service to our fellow man. Amen.

MEMBERS: Amen.

(The Prelate returns to his station and remains standing.)

GOVERNOR: I present the flag of our country (turns to flag). Place your right hand over your heart and join with me in the Pledge of Allegiance.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

“I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”

GOVERNOR: Brothers, what is the duty of every Moose member? You will repeat after me.

GOVERNOR: To uphold our fraternal obligations

MEMBERS: (Repeat)

GOVERNOR: To strengthen and maintain the Defending Circle

MEMBERS: (Repeat)

GOVERNOR: And in our daily lives and conduct

MEMBERS: (Repeat)

GOVERNOR: To exemplify Purity, Aid and Progress.

MEMBERS: (Repeat)

GOVERNOR: Brothers, form the Defending Circle by placing your left hand over your heart as a token of sincerity, place your right hand on the left shoulder of the Brother to your right as a token of friendship, and listen to the “Legend of the Locked Horns.”

(The officers and members form the Defending Circle about the Altar. Each member faces the Altar and positions hands as instructed. The Governor waits until the circle is formed and then advances to Position 8 through an opening created by the Sergeant-at-Arms. The Sergeant-at-Arms opens and then closes the circle after taking his place in front of the Governor’s station. The Governor places his left hand over his heart, but does not raise his right hand.)

GOVERNOR: In the primeval wilds of the northland, two noble moose, leaders of their herds, met in deadly combat. Today, their locked antlers, a silent reminder of the futility of antagonism and conflict, lie bleaching on the plains. We meet tonight as Brothers united in a common cause. Let the spirit of harmony and fraternal regard guide our deliberations.

Otherwise, we will be blinded to the lesson of the "Locked Horns."

Brothers, I welcome you and ask you to return to your places and remain standing.

(The Governor returns to his station.)

GOVERNOR: I now declare _____ Lodge No. _____ Of the Loyal Order of Moose officially opened. The Inner Guard will admit all who are qualified to enter.

GOVERNOR: We invite you to come forward to a place at the altar. If your sponsor is present, we invite him to join you.

(Governor pauses while new members and sponsors take places at altar. He then proceeds to Position 1.)

GOVERNOR: Because the Loyal Order of Moose is a private organization, use of the social quarters in any Moose Center is limited to good standing members, their families and qualified guests. As a member, you are expected to abide by the Constitution and General Laws of the Order and the by-laws of your Lodge. Further, by accepting this obligation, you agree that you will never bring legal action against the fraternity until you have taken your concerns to its leaders.

You should always be mindful of your obligation of membership: to assist in building the membership strength of the fraternity by sponsoring worthy friends, relatives and associates; and to provide financial support for our youngsters at Mooseheart and our seniors at Moosehaven through your donations to Moose Charities.

If you are willing to accept this obligation and follow our fraternal laws please raise your right hand and repeat after me, using your name where I use mine.

I _____ - accept my obligation of membership - in the Loyal Order of Moose - and pledge my support - in caring for children in need - in looking after our senior members - in bringing our community closer together - and in celebrating life with my Brothers and Co-Workers.
