INTRODUCTION

A Brief history of the Moose Legion

The "Moose Legion" or "Degree of Service" was created by resolution during the annual convention of the Supreme Lodge in Cincinnati, Ohio, and adopted by the Supreme Council in 1913 as the "Mooseheart Legion of the World". Initially, and continuing until 1931, women enjoyed full membership as an intricate part of the Mooseheart Legion of the World. Early issues of the Moose Magazine proclaimed this union of men and women with the headlines..... "Mooseheart Legion for Men and Women". These Moose Legionnaires, and thousands who followed, have proven over and over again ... "active Moose Legionnaires are the greatest asset a Lodge can possess!"

Rodney Brandon, the degree's first administrator carrying the title Grand Regent, devised the first emblem, which incorporated a moose head centered in a pyramid with the letters "F", "H", and "C" at its points superimposed over a heart, surrounded by a circle and containing the words "Alces" and "Machlis", all of which had individual meanings. The pyramid symbolized the core of our existence, Faith, Hope and Charity, while the heart symbolized heart of the fraternity, and the word "Alces" meaning moose or large beast and "Machlis" meaning leader. The emblem was used in conjunction with the Women of the Moose until 1991, when a change was made to give both the Moose Legion and the Women of the Moose specific logo identity.

The year 1931 brought the formal organization of the Women of the Moose, and produced an amicable split from the men, as a separate and distinct unit of the fraternity. In the same year, the degree changed its name to "Legion of the Moose", and continued under this banner until early 1991, when the name changed once again, to "Moose Legion", with reference to the "Degree of Service".

Moose Legionnaires, initially committed to building a one-million dollar endowment fund, also recognized the needs of the newly created "Child City - Mooseheart". Extending their efforts, they provided the funds to purchase the first dairy herd and funded construction of the first major building, "Loyalty Hall" -1914 (now renovated and converted into a learning center). Added shortly thereafter were "West Legion Hall" - 1917, "East Legion Hall" - 1919 and "Fez Hall" - 1921. In addition, Moose Legionnaires have provided funds to help with every major project on the Mooseheart campus, and individually have funded construction of the indoor swimming pool adjacent to the school (1965), construction and maintenance of the metric track located at the Illinois Memorial Stadium (1978 & 1994), renovation of Camp Ross Swimming pool (1999), purchase of more property, including a Bunk House (2001), and renovation of the House of God (2003).

Development of Mooseheart's Camp Ross became a concern of the Moose Legion in its early years, and in addition to its obligation for the annual budget, the Moose Legion committed to a 5 year improvement program, which included the construction of a new Camp Director's cabin in 1995. Now, brought about by the volunteer efforts of the Moose Legions, Camp Ross is a full 12 month per year facility, providing a camping experience for Mooseheart children, as well as educational and retreat facilities for Moose International and Mooseheart staff and employees.

Even though the great amount of monies raised by the first Moose Legionnaires were of significant value to Mooseheart, these accomplishments are overshadowed by the commitments made to the "City of Contentment - Moosehaven".The Moose Legion provided the original funding available for the purchase of the 63 acre retirement community campus in Orange Park, Florida. (A little known fact ... for many years after the founding of Moosehaven, admission was open only to those holding the Moose Legion degree.)

Traditional monetary support for Moosehaven continued and took on an added dimension in 1991, when Moose Legionnaires, adopted the "Moosehaven Seniors Medical Fund", wherein another major portion of annual dues is diverted directly to the Moosehaven budget for outside medical service of our seniors. This permanent project has provided for senior health care at Moosehaven in excess of three-million dollars.

Lodges with active Moose Legion committees operate at a higher level in membership building and retention, profitability, and harmony among its membership. The Moose member, once elevated to the Moose Legion Degree and with an active committee through which to channel his fraternal desires, exhibits a strong desire to give of time, talents and leadership ability, thus contributing to Lodge progress.

Let's consider three known facts: first... of those Lodge members who are dropped for non-payment of dues each year - 9 of every 10 are not Moose Legionnaires. Second... of those Moose members who achieve Lodge new members sponsor status each year - 8 of every 10 are Moose Legionnaires, and Third... ninety-eight cents of every dollar raised at the Lodge level by Moose Legionnaires finds its way back into the Lodge, in the form of a new or remodeled buildings, purchase of equipment, payment of insurance premiums or some special project. When we have an active Moose Legion Committee in our Lodges, we have individuals who accept projects and get things done in the Lodge.

Considering the positive effect on our Lodges by Moose Legionnaires, it is imperative we place greater emphasis on Moose Legion membership. We must bring those qualified for membership in the Moose Legion into our ranks, and then provide a schedule of activities and projects within the Lodge through an active Moose Legion Committee.

This will be accomplished by acquainting the Moose member with the Moose Legion, educating him on the value of Moose Legion membership, and elevating him to the Degree of Service. At this point, we will have added assets to our Lodge by including a member who will be more likely to remain a Moose member ... one who will sponsor his friends to membership and one who will be willing to dedicate his efforts through service to the Lodge, community and fraternity.

A Moose member who elevates his membership to the Degree of Service does so out of love for and dedication to the fraternity. He places the needs of his Lodge, District, State or Province, and the Fraternity ahead of his personal desire for recognition or advancement... he steps forward, pays his fee and dues, and then proudly announces..."I'm part of the future, use me to advance the cause of children and seniors!"

This "Guide to Success" is intended to provide a marked pathway helping Moose Legionnaires follow the provisions of the International Moose Legion Code of Rules and the policy and procedures for the Degree of Service of Moose International. At the same time this handbook is meant to offer a comprehensive guide for organizing and operating a successful Lodge Moose Legion Committee in each Moose Lodge of the Fraternity.

THE LODGE MOOSE LEGION COMMITTEE

In conjunction with the Moose Legionnaires of a Lodge, the Lodge Board of Officers should ensure there is a functioning Moose Legion Committee. The Moose Legion Committee is comprised of all Moose Legionnaires who are in good standing with both their Lodge and Moose Legion. This is a standing committee of the Lodge and is responsible to the Lodge Governor and Board of Officers. Regular reports of this committee are given by the appointed Committee Chairman at regular Lodge Board of Officers and membership meetings.

All events, functions and scheduled activities by the Committee shall be submitted to the Lodge Governor in advance for approval of the Lodge Board of Officers, just as is the case for all other committees of the Lodge. The financial operations of the committee shall be managed through the Lodge Administrator. Activity monies received by the committee are turned over to the Lodge Administrator or Secretary for deposit in the General Fund of the Lodge, to the credit of the Moose Legion Committee. Moose Legion Committee funds should never be used by the Lodge for any purpose except as specified in writing by the Moose Legion Committee.

A special note on finances ... the Moose Legion Committee may request of the General Governor that a "savings account" be opened, into which all receipts of the Moose Legion Committee would be deposited (see Section 45.3 of the General Laws). If such an arrangement is reached, it shall be understood the saving account would be opened as follows:

Remember ... to withdraw funds from a saving account requires the prior written approval of the General Governor (see Section 45.4 of the General Laws).

The Moose Legion Committee meeting is described in the Code of Rules and is an official gathering held by and for Moose Legionnaires in good standing with both their Lodge and Moose Legion. Such meetings are held at the Lodge at a regular scheduled time and place as previously established by the Lodge Moose Legion Committee officers. During these meetings, all business relating to the Moose Legion on the Lodge level is conducted, as well as discussion and necessary action which relates to the overall Moose Legion program and/or projects. Basically, meetings are the single function at which all ideas are proposed, refined, and set into motion.

Endowment Fund

An Endowment Fund donation shall be collected at the most appropriate time and place each day of a scheduled Celebration or Moose Legion activity. In addition, an Endowment Fund collection shall be made at each meeting of the Board of Directors and/or Lodge committee. Always proceed the collection of an Endowment Fund with a full explanation of why the fund is so important and ask each person to consider contributing to the fullest extent possible.

The Chairman of each Lodge Moose Legion Committee is responsible to ensure an Endowment Fund collection is made at each meeting, function and/or activity. Funds collected under the auspices of the Lodge Moose Legion Committee shall be turned over to the duly appointed Assistant Secretary, who shall issue a written receipt, and be responsible for transmitting such funds to the Moose Legion Secretary for deposit in the General Fund of the Moose Legion.

Each Moose Legion shall plan, coordinate, advertise and conduct a minimum of one (1) Legacy of the Moose or Golden Ball ceremony each year. The total proceeds are classified as Endowment Fund and remitted in total to the International Moose Legion, designated as Endowment Fund - "Golden Ball" or "Legacy of the Moose" contributions. Each Moose Legion Board of Directors shall encourage the Lodge Moose Legion Committees to undertake, as a special project for their Lodge, the planning, advertisement and conducting of an annual Legacy of the Moose or Golden Ball ceremony, with the proceeds being received by the Lodge, and remitted directly to Moose International as Endowment Fund, designated as Legacy of the Moose or Golden Ball.

Annual Lodge recognition awards are currently offered by Moose International, both for Endowment Fund collections and Legacy of the Moose or Golden Ball contributions.

An audio tape, instruction book and advertisement posters are available without charge upon request from Moose Charities.

ORIENTATION PROGRAM

It shall be the responsibility of the Lodge Moose Legion Committee officers to conduct a Moose Legion Orientation Program for Moose members in their Lodge at least quarterly. (See orientation on page 12)

An orientation of all candidates for membership in the Moose Legion shall be conducted by the Director responsible for membership retention and the Secretary, or their designates, immediately prior to each enrollment ceremony.

ENROLLMENTS

by a qualified ritual staff, as authorized and approved by the Board of Directors and in the manner and form prescribed by the ritual of the International Moose Legion.

A candidate for membership in the Moose Legion shall attend a Moose Legion Orientation prior to attending a class enrollment to become a Moose Legionnaire.

Applicants for elevation to the Degree of Service shall not be legally admitted to membership, except after enrollment.

Whatever the case, when held in conjunction with another event, attendance is generally better than just holding a meeting.

Prior to the meeting hour, the Marshal and Guards should see to the proper setting of the room for a meeting. The Chairman's position should be visible and well heard during the meeting. Tables may be arranged in a square or horseshoe, with the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Junior Past Chairman and Secretary seated at the head.

“There is a destiny that makes us Brothers, none goes his way alone, that which we send into the lives of others, comes back into our own.”

Therefore, you are encouraged to formulate the type and content of meeting which meets with the acceptance of your membership. Everything should be aimed at making those attending feel welcome and a part of the whole. You want to encourage participation and this will be accomplished when you introduce a program, which is interesting and above all else... fun!

ORIENTATION PROGRAM

FOR USE BY LODGE MOOSE LEGION COMMITTEE

This Orientation Program provides substance and facts regarding the Degree of Service of our Order and is to be conducted in your Lodge by Moose Legionnaires. The program is designed to assist your Moose Legionnaires in informing qualified Moose members of the merits and benefits of elevation to the "Degree of Service" of our Order ... the Moose Legion.

The primary thrust of this Orientation Program is to emphasize the "positive" aspects and the sense of pride a member may achieve in being of greater service to the Order. It also highlights the personal satisfaction a member realizes from embarking upon a fraternal path which will enable him to unleash his power to do good and, at the same time, have "fun" along the way.

No ... you don't have to be a public speaker to make this Orientation Program effective. You just have to possess the "will to do it"! For this reason, it might be a good idea to have several interested Moose Legionnaires take turns in presenting the program on a regular basis, at least once monthly. It might be a good idea to enlist Moose Legionnaires in your Lodge who have held offices in the Moose Legion, either present or past, and of course, those of the Pilgrim and Fellowship degrees.

How does it work? First, duplicate and enlarge the posters in the addendum, and then place on an easel for your presentation. A suggested script for each poster is also provided in the addendum.

As you will see, this is a very simple program when used on a regular basis by dedicated Moose Legionnaires who have a strong desire to build our membership. Please understand, this is not an "iron clad", "cast-in-stone" program.

It can, and should be, designed in a way that will be most effective for you and your Lodge membership. The Moose Legionnaire Orientation Program will acquaint every Moose member with the opportunities found in his Moose Legion membership, and support every effort to elevate your Moose Brothers to the "Degree of Service".

Should you have a question, need assistance to get started, or need help in conducting the Moose Legion Orientation Program in your Lodge, contact your Moose Legion Secretary, Ambassador, Regional Manager, or the International Moose Legion Office.

USEFUL NOTES FOR THE PREPARATION OF A MOOSE LEGION ORIENTATION PROGRAM

- [1] Obtain list of potential Moose Legionnaires from the Lodge's SLR's (Weekly Supreme Lodge Report), or other office records. Ensure each Moose member, not currently a Moose Legionnaire, goes on a contact list.
- [2] Approach their original Lodge sponsor [providing he is a Moose Legionnaire in good standing], and if the original sponsors are not interested, use your Membership Committee to begin contacting these Moose members about 'elevation' to the Moose Legion.
- [3] Schedule a Moose Legion orientation program with your Lodge Governor's approval. For the sake of warmth and camaraderie, and most especially to be aware of the latest information, it is vital we ensure those who conduct the Orientation Program are currently active in the Moose Legion.

[4] Ensure that advance publicity is given in your monthly Lodge bulletin, on the Lodge and Moose Legion bulletin board and during the Lodge Officer and Membership meetings.

"Preferred Members", officers and committee chairman may very well turn out to be the most enthusiastic potential candidates for Moose Legion membership. We must not overlook their power to enlist the interest of other potential candidates for membership.

You may wish to arrange snacks and beverages, or provide a dinner or light buffet, either before or after the Orientation Program.

You may wish to ask the potential candidates for help in setting up the Orientation room. No moving mountains, but something really simple like setting out tables, chairs or snacks; pulling drapes; making up name tags; arranging literature or greeting those attending. This is an ideal and painless way to develop a sense of involvement, along with a personal feeling of making a difference, for which the Moose Legion is famous.

We recommend the use of personal invitation letters in order to keep the interest among the sponsors and candidates alike. We have included suggested text in the addendum. If your Lodge has a computer, you can use the mail merge capability to accomplish this task.

At some point, you will want to "show off" the various Lodge projects made possible by the Lodge Moose Legion Committees such as the "picnic pavilion", "bar-b-q pits", "children's playground equipment", "kitchen equipment", "smoke eaters", "tables and chairs", "big screen TV", "flagpole", etc. This allows the potential Moose Legionnaire to actually see what can be accomplished when "dedicated" members work for a common cause.

Finally, you may wish to transform the activity into a potluck dinner, or something similar, to which ladies may be included. It would be a good idea to have the Moose Legionnaires do all the cooking. This would show that Moose Legionnaires are caring and create the same type flavor we find within some of the other units of our Order. This can be developed into a "fun" evening, and there is no reason why ladies should be excluded from the evening's activities, including the Orientation Program.

Produce an activity or event very soon after the Orientation. Perhaps a dinner or sports event, or a picnic with all the candidates, their sponsors and family members. This will maintain a high level of interest prior to enrollment. Candidates must attend a scheduled Moose Legion enrollment before they can complete their Moose Legion membership. Sometimes the problem of waiting months between signing of the Petition for Membership and enrollments is alleviated when the Lodge Moose Legion Committee enroll their own Moose Legionnaires. These mini-celebrations require proper authorization from the Moose Legion Board of Directors. For further information on mini-celebrations, contact your Moose Legion President or Secretary.

Well-planned and organized meetings are a terrific tool to enable Moose Legionnaires to have input into the functions of the committee. This is where we discuss problems and solutions, examine and evaluate projects or program progress and consider new ideas and events.

The "FUNCTION" of the Lodge Moose Legion Committee shall be to provide service and leadership to the Lodge, its officers and members. Plus it will encourage all Moose Legionnaires to become active in the affairs of the Lodge and provide a wholesome social atmosphere for the Moose Legionnaire and his family.

The "GOALS" of the Lodge Moose Legion Committee shall be the strengthening of our overall Moose fraternity and its programs—To respond to any type of call from the Lodge Board of Officers —To stimulate membership growth in both the Lodge and Moose Legion—To provide superior leadership at the Lodge level —and promote harmony within all units of the Order.

Point to remember ... as the Lodge Ritual Staff is the first formal contact a new Lodge member remembers, the Lodge "Moose Legion Orientation" meeting is the first "hands on" experience a prospective Moose Legionnaire will encounter with the "Degree of Service" ... keep it simple, informative, easy, and mostly ... fun!

PLANNING AN EVENT

WHAT DO WE DO NEXT?

It never fails. The moment your get a bunch of Moose Legionnaires together and come up with a workable idea for an activity, an event or an ongoing program, before you know it, it's in motion and headed toward completion. Notice that the key word is "workable". That's one of the most important functions of the Lodge Moose Legion Committee meeting; to come up with workable ideas for Lodge level activities and to involve both the Moose Legionnaire and his entire family.

Moose Legionnaires everywhere have become experts at generating an extensive array of activities, all designed to:

- [a] Bring Moose Legionnaires and their families together in activities catering to all age groups;
- [b] Attract the greatest number of people and thus create more publicity for the Moose Legion, all of which helps to swell the Moose Legion ranks;
- [c] Produce income for the host of causes to which Moose Legionnaires have pledged their support.

The Moose Legion can use its talents to encourage and support the family concept that we see is working not only to expand our numbers, but to deepen everyone in the appreciation of fraternal values. Have you ever seen happier people than the crews of Moose Legionnaires and their ladies engaged in making an event work?

So, how do Moose Legionnaires and ladies of the Lodge Moose Legion Committee plan a "knock-down, drag-out" event that will cover the Lodge quarterly taxes?

A. Establish a stated goal, and let everyone know about it. "This event is going to raise a thousand dollars for our Lodge General Fund" or "This event is going to raise two hundred dollars to help pay for the new tool shed" or "This event is going to raise five hundred dollars for Camp Ross, and beat out every other Lodge Moose Legion Committee in the State/Province". See how the fun starts?

B. Determine exactly what the event shall be, based upon such considerations as: How popular will the event be? An outdoor picnic, for example, can be set up to appeal to all age groups. Also, you want to consider what else is scheduled to take place in your community on the same day as your event. On the other hand, a motorcycle poker run will admittedly attract a group of people with a narrow band of interest, but bikers, as we all know, are intense, and you might end up with 10,000 of 'em, even in a snowstorm.

C. Determine the exact date so you can avoid conflict with major District, State or Regional Moose events and community activities. Your local Chambers of Commerce issue events calendars at the beginning of the year; get as many as you can from the surrounding communities as well; so do many of the community service clubs, local colleges; and of course your local newspapers. The Moose Association should have a schedule of their planned events, which will include the District meetings, Leadership sessions, Supreme Governor visitations, etc.

This determination has another vital aspect. What will be happening before or after at your Lodge? At the District? At the Moose Legion or Association level? International Moose Legion Conference? Moose International Convention, Association Mid-Year Conference or annual convention? Will the Chapter members be off to a Women of the Moose function?

What does the Family Activities Committee have planned? This type of knowledge is worth its weight in gold, believe it!

D. Obtain Approval because the Lodge Moose Legion Committee is a standing committee of the Lodge. You are responsible to present the plan, clear the date, and obtain approval in advance from the Lodge Board of Officers.

E. Research and evaluation. Here's where your Lodge Moose Legion Committee Secretary's records, as well as the records of your Lodge and the memories of experienced Moose Legionnaires (especially those Past Chairman) will be invaluable.

While it's nice to know what worked and what didn't (or what made money and what didn't) you will also want to consider the times and the timing in making an evaluation. For example, a giant raffle (where raffles are legal) with a shiny VCR as the main prize might have generated a lot of interest last year, but this year it might very well have to be a DVD player to get people's attention. At any rate, you can see that such research and evaluation in some form is essential to your activity's success.

It is also wise to consider the periods when people are disposed to spend time, effort, and money. This varies with the area, of course, but it's worth the effort to do some research. Incidentally, you can still apply these principles and more to brand new, never thought of before events (such as a NASCAR tire changing speed competition), because the basic message is to plan your event or activity as efficiently as possible.

F. TIMELINE FOR YOUR EVENT Whether it is a reception honoring your Moose Legion jurisdiction President or Secretary or a full-scale production of the 'Legacy of the Moose', you will want to create a timeline. Very easy. Say, for example that your event is 3-months away.

Simply take 6-sheets of paper and title them 'three months' - 'two months' - 'one month' - 'one week' - 'event day' and 'the day after'. At the top of each sheet, print the name of the event and the day, date and time on which it will be taking place. Nice reminder.

Then, working from the event day backward, list on each sheet the things that should be accomplished, the order in which they should be accomplished, and who should be accomplishing them - plus the 'internal deadline' for each item. Previous recommendations in this section will provide you with enough food for thought for the tasks and duties that it will take to bring off your successful event. This will help you to:

- ✓ Properly time Committee and Lodge Officer's approval.
- ✓ Set up your budget [include every item and service].
- ✓ Erase possible conflicts.
- ✓ Price the event.
- ✓ Price tickets.
- ✓ Design, execute and distribute publicity and/or invitations.
- ✓ Set limit on reservations and close list on time.
- ✓ Evaluate and pick your personnel, assign specific tasks, make a final list of substitutes and compose the 'thank you' notes.
- ✓ Determine, select and set your music and/or entertainment.
- ✓ Determine and execute decorations.
- ✓ Determine and select your menu, cooks and servers.
- ✓ Schedule ordering perishables on day of event.
- ✓ Determine and assign cash management staff if necessary.
- ✓ Determine side events like a cake lottery or raffle, and more than anything else, do your troubleshooting at a glance.
- ✓ Schedule appreciation event for workers.
- ✓ And, anything else not on this list.

You can arrange all the elements in either chart form, with spaces for last minute additions, or ess next year. For bigger and better events and have it typed up on notepaper. Don't forget to give copies [and updates] to your principle supervisors and crew chiefs. Keep your timeline at hand so that you can share it with everyone else - the right hand knowing what the left hand is doing.

Why not try this out on an event and see how it works? Your timelines will become more elaborate with practice. And, think of the work you'll save when you want to repeat this year's success next year. For bigger and better events and activities, don't leave any stone unturned - success is promised, and best of all ... it will be fun!

G. Transportation plans if necessary. Who (and what) will need transportation? Will it be donated? What about gas money? Car-pooling? A bus? Liability and accident insurance coverage? Are the drivers reliable? How much time will it take both ways? Will the distance affect turnout? Does the route to the event go through a major highway beautification project replacing an abandoned mine field?

H. Lining up your personnel. How many people will this activity require? Extra ones to "spell" those at work? Can they all perform satisfactorily? If you are appointing a cook is the cook familiar with the menu?

What about servers? Who will they be? Are they experienced? Who will tell everyone exactly what is expected of them? Will it be in writing? Will there be time for a crew meeting beforehand? What about decorations? Who will make them? Will everyone be protected from heavy lifting? Are all safety and sanitation rules clear to everyone? Any possibility of being exposed to hazardous materials - think ... because a simple thing like "white out" is a hazardous item. Will everyone actually be available on the date selected? This means no spur-of-the-moment flying trips to Outer Mongolia, or suddenly remembering 4-month ocean cruises. If not, who are the backup personnel? Do you have reliable people who will serve as crew chiefs or supervisors? Do you have a really competent person in charge in case you need someone to do cash management? Incidentally, lining up personnel also means guest speaker or special entertainment. Are they available for the specific dates you desired? Will they have to travel; if so, who is paying the expenses? Will they need reservations for accommodations? Is all this in writing?

I. Publicity. You can plan the very best activity in the world, have the greatest crew available, and the ideal day and weather ... but it all goes to waste if you have failed to advertise. A few common sense rules to follow: Advertise the event and date as far in advance as possible (at least 3-months). This can be accomplished by placing a poster on the bulletin boards of your Lodge (have a Moose Legion only bulletin board - it works!), and including an article in the Lodge monthly bulletin. Make a direct mailing to the Moose Legionnaires of your Lodge (at least 60-days in advance) and be sure this notice includes all the details and times. Include information on your event during your report to the membership during each Lodge meeting. Don't just advertise once and then forget it. Organize a telephone team and make personal calls to as many Moose Legionnaires as can be reached. One last pointer ... if guests are to be included, be sure you send them a copy of the program or agenda well in advance, including travel and lodging information.

J. Budgeting because resource management lies beneath almost every human endeavor. You will want to assign a budget manager (often the committee secretary) to monitor the existence of necessary funds; their allocations; and to account for every step in their expenditure. This means receipt for money received and spent, and in most cases, approval before an expenditure is made. Then a full accounting of all monies received and expended, and of course, all of this must be in writing with full backup receipts.

K. Thank you to everyone involved. Recognition is one of the characteristics of all great leaders. Recognition is one of the pillars of fraternalism practiced throughout the Moose Legion. Certificates of appreciation, handshakes, hugs, pats on the back, gifts, whatever. This is the part that most becomes all of us. Because in acknowledging others we acknowledge ourselves.

EVENTS OR ACTIVITIES

[Many of these 'events' and 'activities' may be held in conjunction with the Lodge Family Activities Committee, and involve all Lodge and Chapter members with their families.]

MOOSE LEGION COMMITTEE SUGGESTED EVENTS

They say "there's nothing new under the sun". This may be true, but is there really anyone who knows all about the past? Almost anything is possible within budget; and can be successful financially, while attracting Moose Legionnaires and their families.

In planning your event, program or activity, you will want to consider some or all of the elements listed previously. So, here are some activities that might just be missing in your Lodge Moose Legion Committee ... use your imagination!

The most popular events are dinners, banquets, or dinner-dances, reflecting the importance that mankind across the ages has attached to the ritual of breaking bread together. We Moose Legionnaires are no different, for activities involving meal functions seem to outnumber all other events. Music helps to make these occasions more costly to put on, but usually is a welcomed addition. Music can come from a 'live' band [most expensive] or a disk jockey [almost as expensive in some places]. Of course, volunteer bands and disk jockeys save lots of money, but your committee will have to decide, based on the quality of the music and the professionalism. Some Lodges have resident volunteer entertainers who, of course, are a plus. Dinner-dances seem to attract lots of people when they are theme events, such as a country western night; Alice in Wonderland; Star Wars; MASH Party; or a Davy Jones Locker night, all of which those attending are encouraged to wear costumes [remember - people like to win prizes for best costumes]. Dinner-dances held in conjunction with an important local event, such as the country fair, rodeo, and even election night, all providing an opportunity for the Moose Legionnaire and his family to celebrate at the Lodge, away from the general public. But caution! How big a draw is that outside event - will it draw your members away from the Lodge? This is another argument in favor of pre-sold tickets.

But, for what purpose would the Lodge Moose Legion Committee be giving a dinner-dance? We can celebrate:

Election of Moose Legion Officers; election of Lodge Officers; acknowledgement of awards, such as Moose Legionnaire of the Year; awards conferred by the Moose Legion jurisdiction; elevation of a qualified Moose Brother into the Moose Legion degree - most certainly if your Lodge is hosting one of the quarterly Moose Legion Celebrations; to kick-off or conclude a Moose Legion membership program [where individual sponsors can be acknowledged]; Legacy of the Moose or Golden Ball ceremony; elevation of a Fellow or Pilgrim; acknowledgement of the Lodge or Chapter charter anniversary; celebration of Moose Legion Honor Month in January; Founder's Day in October; honoring a guest speaker to the Lodge Moose Legion Committee, or a visitation by the International Ambassador or Moose Legion Jurisdiction President; honoring Moose Legionnaires if your Lodge is located near the site of the annual International Moose Legion Conference in November; fund raiser for any an all of the activities to which the Moose Legion is dedicated, including but not limited to: Mooseheart/ Moosehaven Endowment Fund; Camp Ross; Moosehaven Senior Medical Fund; any International sponsored project, or some special interest or need of your Lodge, or a community effort, such as building a health clinic; assist a family in distress; to purchase a bus for senior citizen or handicap individuals; as a 'thank you' to the crews and teams that worked the previous event or activity.

All the above reasons and more can be applied to the following activities, which are perfect for family, as well as Moose Legionnaires. See which ones you can arrange to top off with a dinner or dinner-dance at the end of the day.

Picnics in nearby parks and wooded areas [potluck dinners work well here]: boat rides [with everyone bringing a box lunch]. And fishing trips; hiking and overnight camping trips; hay rides [in conjunction with you country western weekend dinner-dance] pool parties with the most favored barbecue; cultural events, such as trips to museums; concerts; and historical sites.

Children are of special concern to Moose Legionnaires. Here are some events that work very well in every community. Entertainment can come from the ranks of the Lodge Moose Legion Committee and your always faithful Chapter members. Decorations can be clever, simple, and cost effective. If children come, can parents [and grandparents] be far behind?

Be careful to select the age group you want to serve and the quality of the refreshments: Breakfast with Santa or the Easter Bunny; back to school [gifts and useful items like books, pen and pencil sets, dictionaries, etc. either as door prizes or favors]; Easter egg hunt [with your chairman in full bunny rabbit regalia]; Halloween [with costume prizes and/or a corrugated cardboard haunted house]; innumerable kinds and types of essay and poetry competitions on every subject; and sports events from hopscotch through archery, and team sports [perhaps father-son, mother-daughter competitions].

There's a lot to be said for ongoing programs [fortified with potluck dinners] such as weekly [in conjunction with the Friday night family Dinner], or regularly scheduled pool, bowling, darts or horseshoe tournaments, or bridge or chess competition at your Lodge; major TV sports event watching in the social quarters or room set aside for the Moose Legionnaires and their families; and the creation of in-Lodge clubs; i.e., singles dance club, RV Road-burners Club; bridge and poker clubs; trivial pursuit and board game clubs; rod and gun clubs; motorcycle touring or observed trails club; bicycle clubs. All of these and more help your Lodge Moose Legion become the generator of ongoing fraternity and fun for all members. If possible, provide a dependable source of support for your Lodge; and, as such remain an active participant in the International and community service goals for which the 'Degree of Service' is noted.

Incidentally, if your Lodge Moose Legion Committee comes up with a smashing idea, why not write it down, and send it along to the International Moose Legion Department at Moose International - perhaps someone else would like to try your idea.

BOTTOM LINE

Since 1913, Moose Legionnaires have been the backbone of every successful Lodge operation, a tradition which is stronger today and will be continually enhanced in the years ahead. Our Lodges continue to need, perhaps even more today than yesterday, the dedication and loyalty possessed by Moose Legionnaires. A proven fact ... no Lodge can remain strong and grow without Moose Legionnaires being active and involved in all phases of the Lodge operation.

Remember, in the United States and Canada, International Moose Legion Ambassadors and the entire staff at Moose International is always willing to be of assistance. Moose Legionnaires in Lodges of Great Britain will want to contact the Chief Executive Officer of the Grand Lodge of Great Britain at his headquarters in British Mooseheart.

SUGGESTED SCRIPT FOR POSTERS

Scripts can be modified to fit the presenter's style of presentation. This part of the orientation should take no longer than one-half hour.

Poster # 1 -- Who?

Moose Legionnaires come from all walks of life and occupations. They are leaders in their communities, provinces, states and our nations. Moose Legionnaires also prevail in all positions of responsibility within the Moose fraternity. They are all Moose members who believe in "doing some good thing for someone each day".

Poster # 2 - What?

The Moose Legion is known as the 'Degree of Service'. The purpose of the Moose Legion is to band together those loyal and devoted members of the Moose who desire to make further contributions to the humanitarian objectives of our Order. It is also affectionately known as the 'Fun Degree' or 'Playground for the Doers of the fraternity'. (explain the 'fun' things that happen within your Lodge Moose Legion Committee and at the Celebrations)

Poster # 3 -- History

Give a brief history as outlined on poster and from information provided at the front of this Guide To Success.

Poster # 4 -- Accomplishments

Review accomplishments. This is a list of major projects in support of Mooseheart and Moosehaven that were totally financed through the Moose Legions, except where otherwise indicated. The projects are impressive and the total contributions are in the millions of dollars. Concentrate on what these projects mean to the children and to the aged, and how, through the Moose Legion, the individual Lodge member can make a difference.

Poster # 5 - Why?

Membership in the Moose Legion will subject Lodge members to many new opportunities in their Lodge. Theme parties, sporting events, community service projects, and other unique activities for them and their family. In addition to these programs, a Moose Legionnaire will get better acquainted with fellow Lodge members and make new friends throughout the fraternity. Special social activities called Moose Legion Celebrations are scheduled at various lodges within the jurisdiction of the Moose Legion. These Celebrations serve as a means to share ideas and good times with fellow Moose Legionnaires.

Also, leadership skills may be developed through active participation at the local Lodge Moose Legion Activities Committee, or, within the Moose Legion jurisdiction. In addition, your Moose membership card will have the Moose Legion logo in the lower right corner designating your membership in the Moose Legion.

Plus, membership in the Moose Legion is a requirement for becoming a member of the higher degrees of the Order: the Fellowship Degree of Honor and the Pilgrim Degree of Merit. These higher degrees are conferred upon those Moose Legionnaires who go the 'extra mile' in their Lodge, Moose Legion and other units of the fraternity.

Poster # 6 - Am I Eligible?

Emphasize there are only two (2) requirements and the heartfelt feeling of achievement in 'doing some good thing for someone each day'.

Poster # 7 - Where and When?

Explain that they can start the process today and here at this orientation. Complete the application, pay the fees and dues and then attend a Celebration enrollment. Provide time, date and who is invited to Celebration and explain the fun they can look forward to on that day, AND, in the days to come.

IMPORTANT: After orientation follow-up with personal contact, especially with all who completed an application. Keep the applicants posted on Lodge committee meetings, the enrollment and any other Moose Legion activities.

NOTE: You will also want to stay in contact with those who didn't join as they may change their mind. The activities that the Lodge Moose Legion Committee plans and executes will make a difference in reversing these Lodge member's decision.
